Your rights under the access to Medical Reports Act 1988

(The Access to Personal Files and Medical Reports (NI) Order 1991)

It may be necessary for us to apply for a medical report/sight of your medical records from a doctor who has cared for you, but before we can do this we need your consent, by signing the declaration below. Under the Access to Medical Reports Act 1988 (The Access to Personal Files and Medical Reports (NI) Order 1991) you have certain rights relating to any report prepared by him and these are summarised below:

- 1 You do not have to give your consent. However, if you do not, this may result in us being unable to process your application/claim.
- 2 Your doctor is required to retain a copy of the medical records/ medical report for at least 6 months. During this time you may ask your doctor to see a copy of this report.
- 3 If, before the medical records/report is sent to us you write to your doctor saying that you wish to see the records/ report, you then have 21 days in which to contact him to arrange access. We will notify you at the same time we write to your doctor to tell him you wish to see the medical records/ medical report.
- 4 If you wish to see the medical records/ report before it is sent to us, the doctor cannot submit it until he has your consent.
- 5 You may ask the doctor to amend any part of the medical records/report which you consider incorrect or misleading. If your doctor is not in agreement, you may append your comments to the report.
- 6 The doctor can withhold access to any part of the medical records/ report if he feels you or others would be harmed by seeing it. In such cases, he must notify you and you will be limited to seeing only the remaining part of the report. If the whole medical record/report is affected, he must not submit it unless you give your consent.

Whether or not you complete the declaration below, upon request to your doctor you have the right to see a copy of the medical records/ report up to six months after it has been submitted. However if you are provided with a copy the doctor can charge a reasonable fee to cover his costs. You should be aware that if you indicate that you wish to have access to any copy of medical records/ medical report it may result in a delay of processing your application or claim.

I have read the notes above and am aware of my rights under the Access to Medical Reports Act 1988 (The Access to Personal Files and Medical Reports (NI) Order 1991) and that:

I do not/do wish to see a copy of the medical records/ report and or sight of my medical records that my medical practitioner may provide before it is submitted (*DELETE AS APPROPRIATE).

Declaration

I hereby consent to the request for a medical report and or sight of my medical records relating to me by PG Mutual and authorise the release to and use by of any information required by them in connection with this application OR as a result of the sickness or/and injury which is subject to a claim.
